About Us

Incorporated on 7 April 2009, the Nurses Learning Hub Pte Ltd is a subsidiary of the Singapore Nurses Association. The initiative to incorporate NLH is aligned to one of Singapore Nurses Association's objectives – to promote the advancement of nurses in education.

NLH was incorporated to address a gap and to provide quality opportunities for nurses to upgrade themselves and undertake a Bachelor of Nursing programme that was relevant to the Singapore landscape, as well as catered to suit nursing's unique working environment and time schedule.

The Bachelor of Nursing (Post-registration) course is the longest running degree conversion programme in Singapore. Started by SNA with La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia in October 1997, the programme has graduated more than 1,000 registered nurses.

This Bachelor of Nursing is designed to enable Registered Nurses (RNs) with a hospital or diploma qualification in nursing to expand their professional education to a bachelor's degree. The course consists of core studies and subjects relevant to the context of nursing practice in Singapore.

Students are assisted to expand their knowledge base in the discipline of nursing and apply this knowledge to nursing practice. They are also provided with the opportunity to develop academic and practical skills, and the attitudes needed to comprehend and evaluate new nursing knowledge in the discipline of nursing.

Graduates of the Bachelor of Nursing (Post-registration) course will have a strong discipline base and will be eligible to apply for entry into postgraduate studies.
